April 2025

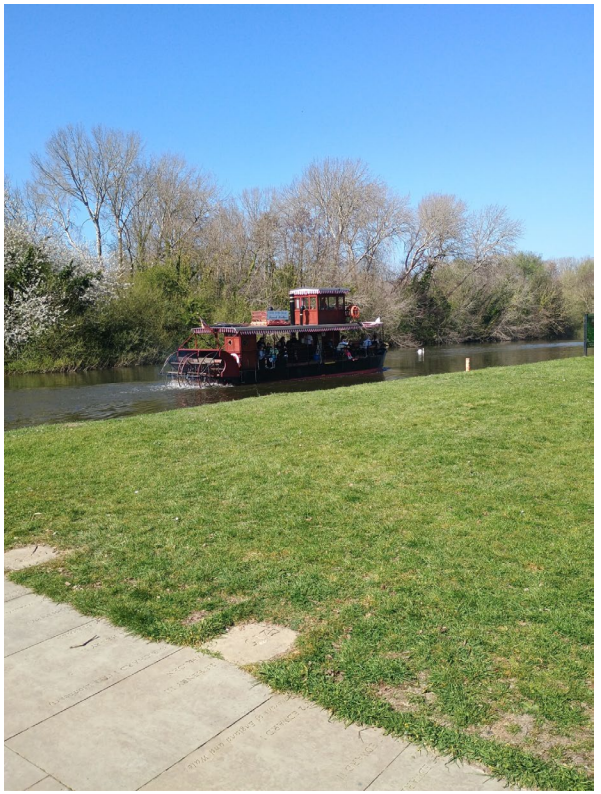
We've had a busy month starting with becoming parents to 5 little Ducklings. We did lots of arts & Crafts for Easter with some clay making and decoupage. Been out for drives around Windsor . Celebrated a couple of birthday and had some entertainment and not forgetting our monthly cuddles with Mable the therapy dog.

Mabel our Beautiful Therapy Dog

🐾 Another day, another visit from our favourite furry friend… Mabel the therapy dog! 🐶 Our residents absolutely love spending time with Mabel — her cuddles, calm nature, and wagging tail always brighten everyone's day. ❤️

Holy Communion with Ian from St Peters

Drive out to Runnymede



We had a lovely afternoon drive out to Runnymede from Nicholas House in Burnham the other week! Our residents had a great time sightseeing around Windsor, enjoying the views and a change of scenery.

We love getting out and about, making memories together!

Residents Loving the Ducklings

Amazing time watching our ducking's hatch and within hour, being able to hold them. So, so, so cute!

Happy Birthday

Proud to be British

We celebrated St George's Day in true English style, with lively music and plenty of joyful singing. The festivities were topped off with delicious scones and a comforting cup of traditional English tea, making it a thoroughly enjoyable afternoon for all.

Staying Active, Staying Happy! 🏋️ As we get older, keeping active is so important for both body and mind! That's why we love our regular exercise sessions, helping residents stay mobile, improve strength, and most importantly - have fun!
