December 2023

Issue 6

December 2023

Welcome all to our last issue of Winton House's Newsletter of 2023, and to end our very busy year on a high.

We had a jam-packed Christmas filled with many entertainers singing, dancing and painting all throughout December bringing joy and fun to all our residents.

Mojo Art

This month's visit from Mojo Art was Christmas themed, where the residents participated in painting different Christmas themed pictures. All the fantastic artwork done by our residents are all along our corridors.

Elf Day at Winton House

This month our staff all joined in to dress up as elves for the entertainment of our lovely residents. As you can see by the picture, they enjoyed a lovely elf themed cupcake.

One thing the staff at Winton House love to do is dress up, every month there is a different theme for our residents to join our staff by dressing up if they would like to.

Carol Concert with Families

This Month we had a carol concert with our residents and their families, we sang Christmas songs and carols. Everyone really enjoyed it and had a lot of fun in the afternoon.

Carol Concert (Rev Rosie)

This month we had a visit the Joyce Meyer Ministry who sang some lovely Christmas carols to the residents.

They also had some lovely treats for everyone such as Mince pies and some chocolate which we all enjoyed, and we were even lucky to some gifts for all the residents.

Staff and Residents Christmas Lunch

Our residents and staff all sat down together to enjoy a lovely cooked roast dinner and the company of one another.

It was good for all our staff and residents to spend time together and have a laugh, also to see all the residents enjoying themselves.

Lucy Lou

Everyone at Winton House loved having Lucy visit us as she always brings a smile to everyone's faces and enjoy listening and singing along with her.

Tap Dancer

Our residents had the luxury of seeing the fabulous Tap Dancer Katie this month. Our residents enjoyed watching her tap dance and have given some the chance to reminisce they're younger years when they used to tap dance themselves.

It is important to us that the residents have the opportunity to join in when they can, and Katie was wonderful as she gave everyone some jingle bells to play along as she danced.

Nick (Singer/Guitarist)

Our residents really enjoyed having Nick this month, they also enjoyed singing along with Nick while he played the guitar. Not only did the residents enjoy singing Christmas songs along with Nick, but they also enjoyed having conversations with him and learning new things about him.

Sarah - Singer

We had the lovely Sarah sing for us on Christmas eve, everyone loved her and enjoyed singing along with her. Sarah sang some wonderful Christmas songs, that the residents enjoyed listening to.

Having Sarah sing for us in the afternoon was a wonderful way to finish of our Christmas Eve.

Christmas Day at Winton House

We all celebrated Christmas morning together by opening presents, with our families, followed by a delicious Christmas dinner.

Our residents loved spending time together throughout the festive period.
