June 2025

Issue 52

June

June has been the hottest month of the year so far, and we've made the most of the sunshine! From birthday celebrations and creative crafts to a bit of shopping, gardening, and lovely drives out in the community – it's been a busy and joyful month for everyone.

Kate's Birthday Celebrations

Clay Creations!

Our residents had a fantastic time getting hands-on with clay pot making this month. From rolling and moulding the clay to painting and decorating their finished pots, everyone embraced their creative side – with some beautiful results to show for it!

Cute overload – Mable's monthly visit

Hands up, Baby Hands Up....Physio Session

Gardening Club

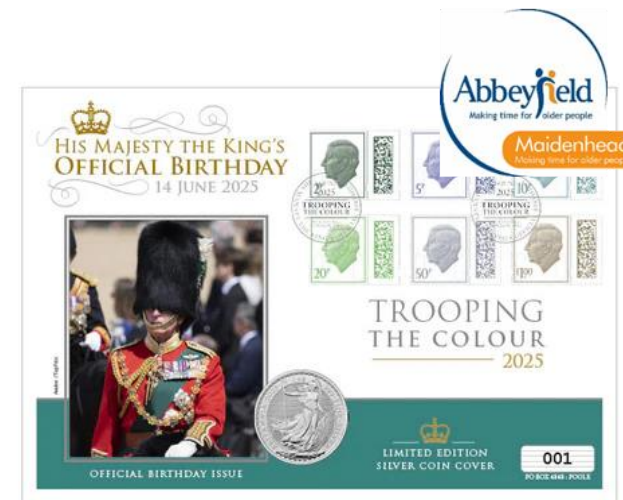

Our residents had a lovely time choosing beautiful plants for the garden – then got stuck in potting them up to brighten our outdoor spaces. A little sunshine, a bit of soil, and lots of smiles all round! 🌻 🌸

Now everyone can enjoy the colour and life they've added to our garden.

King's Birthday Celebrations

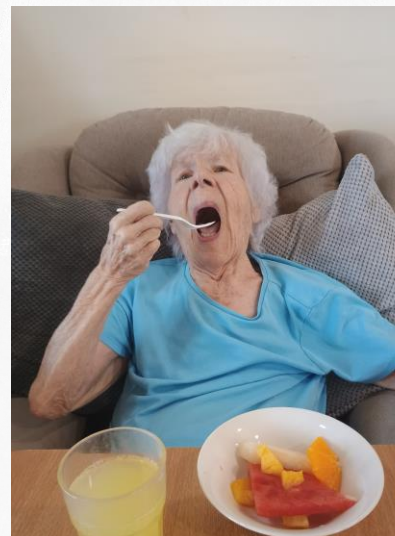

Residents had a wonderful time watching The Trooping of the Colour on TV. With flags in hand and smiles all around, we proudly joined in the celebration from the comfort of Nicholas House!

Hydration Station is out....

Heat waves, how have you all coped? We have had our hydration station out, supplying different drinks, a selection of fruits and lots of ice cream & lollies!

Ascot Ladies' Day... let there be hats!
